

Scottish Target Shooting

Scottish 50m Rifle Championships 2023

15 to 16 July 2023

Denwood Range, Countesswells Road
Aberdeen AB15 8AS

Programme

Prone

All prone matches will consist of 60 shots, using decimal scoring, to be fired in a time of 50 minutes.

The Men's Prone event will comprise an Elimination Match (if required), and the Championship Match. The leading competitors in each Elimination Match will go through to the Championship Match.

The Women's Prone event will comprise an Elimination Match (if required), and the Championship Match. The leading competitors in each Elimination Match will go through to the Championship match.

3 Positions

Both Men's and Women's 3P events will consist of a Qualification Match (scored in integer format) followed by a Final, with the numbers qualifying being dependent on entry but not less than 4.

The Men's 3P match will consist of 20 shots in each of the kneeling, prone and standing positions within a total limit of 1hr 30min.

The Women's 3P match will consist of 20 shots in each of the kneeling, prone and standing positions within a total limit of 1hr 30min.

Event Rules

This competition will be run under ISSF rules on electronic targets for all matches and positions. In all events, competitors must report to their firing point at their allotted time. Competitors will be called to the line 10 minutes before the 15 minutes "Preparation and sighting" starts.

Each event also includes a confined event, restricted to those who qualify as Scottish Residents, or on other grounds, to represent Scotland in this sport. If you qualify, please choose the "confined entry" option when registering to indicate eligibility.

ISSF Rules and the latest amendments may be downloaded free from www.issf-sports.org. A reference copy will be available for competitors.

Shooters with a Disability

Eligibility to Enter

Since this event is run following ISSF rules, it is not generally open to competitors with a disability unless the competitor is able to comply with the ISSF rules.

If there is any concern about entering the competition and meeting these rules, then please contact events@scottishtargetshooting.co.uk.

Venue Accessibility

The 50m range at Denwood is accessible to wheelchair/mobility impaired competitors with help from club members to negotiate the steep path to the range. An accessible toilet is available at the indoor range which has step free access.

Doping Control

Scottish Target Shooting follows the doping regulations adopted by British Shooting, developed with UKAD. As such, the testing for banned substances may be carried out at any time. Please declare any medication at check-in before shooting.

Equipment control

Equipment control will be available under ISSF rules 6.7.6 to allow voluntary checking. It is the competitor's responsibility to ensure that they have ample time for equipment control before the start of preparation time. Under ISSF rule 6.7.9 post competition checks will be carried out. Competitors will be selected for equipment control checks after shooting, a failure to pass equipment control will result in disqualification.

Scottish Target Shooting

Juries

A competition jury will be appointed, consisting of ISSF or British Shooting licensed judges and/or members of the STS Smallbore Association Management Group (SBR AMG).

Ties

Ties will be resolved as per ISSF Rule 6.15.

Protests

ISSF protest rules will apply ISSF rule 6.16. The protest fee for the meeting will be posted with a supply of Competitor Protest Forms.

Prizes

Medals will be awarded to 1st, 2nd and 3rd place, in Open and Confined categories, for each event.

In the Confined category, a trophy will be presented to the competitor in first place for each event.

- Men's Prone - Glengoyne Quaich
- Women's Prone - Jetty Smart Trophy
- Men's 3P - Watsonian Trophy
