Submitting Your Scores

- Submit scores online – a link can be found on the Pistol Summer Postal Results page under the "EVENTS" tab.
- Cards DO NOT need to be returned UNLESS requested or you have no local official to check and score these.
- You may be asked to return cards (or printouts from electronic targets) for random checks, or in the event of a challenge, so please retain your cards for one month after the final 'Submit by' date.
- If you need to return cards, you will be asked by email and you will have two weeks to return the requested cards (this deadline can be extended for exceptional circumstances).
- If a returned card is checked and a minor error is found, the recorded score will be updated. If a major discrepancy is found, or the card is not returned, further investigation will occur, and scores may be voided.
- You can challenge a score someone else has submitted by emailing Scottish Target Shooting at events@scottishtargetshooting.co.uk with the competitor's name, event and round you are challenging. Organisers may then request the shot card to be returned if within the timescales stated above.
